Religious Emblems Class:

Protestant / Independent Christian Churches - Grades 6-8

Notes:

1. For each meeting, bring your Bible, "God and Church" workbook and a pen. Please read through the entire lesson prior to meeting (we will answer most questions as a group).
2. For the final 15-20 minutes of each meeting, we will have time to work on the Photo Albums. Materials will be provided (binder, paper, glue, scissors, colored pencils), but you will want to look at specifics for each week (some weeks need personal photographs)
3. Identify a pastor or elder at your church to meet with you during lessons 3, 5 and 7
4. Daily bible reading - use log on page 15
5. For more information about this program, or to check your specific denomination, visit www.praypub.org

Lesson Plan:

10/19 Lesson 1: pg4-6; bring photos/magazine; we will review options for daily reading plans

11/2 Lesson 2: pgs 7-10; bring photos/magazines

11/16 Lesson 3: pgs 11-14; collect photos of your church and make a timeline of its history. Plan to meet separately this week with your pastor/elder about your church's history (do your own research ahead of time)

11/30 Lesson 4: pgs 16-18; Thanksgiving weekend [Project #1 completed? Daily reading log on pg 15]

12/14 Lesson 5: pgs 19-22; bring a worship bulletin from your church service; attend a service and meet with pastor/elder to discuss.

12/28 No Meeting / D203 winter break [Start project #2 on pg 23]

1/11 Lesson 6: pgs 24-27 [Start project #3 on pg 31]

1/25 Lesson 7: pgs 28-30; get final sign-off from your pastor and order award using the form on page 33. The award medallion is $9.50 (image shown at top right) and denomination pin is $5.50. Some churches may ask families to pay for their own awards.

2/8 Scout Sunday: if your church does not do a special scout ceremony on this day, ask your pastor/elder to make a special announcement for your son and present the award.
